Subject: IT investments for the 2008-2010 budget biennium

I hereby certify that the Department of Planning and Budget (DPB) does not presently have any proposed IT investments for the upcoming 2008-2010 budget biennium. I also hereby delegate my plan certification authority within the Commonwealth agency IT strategic planning system (ProSight) to the Project Management Division (PMD) of VITA.

Furthermore, I understand that I must immediately contact DPB's designated VITA Customer Account Manager to initiate an appropriate IT strategic planning update should DPB's IT investment status change.
