Agency Profile & Strategic Direction

Agency Mission Statement:

Gunston Hall Plantation preserves, interprets, and promotes this 18th-century historic site in order to educate the public about the international significance of its owner, George Mason, for his unique contribution to the universal cause of human rights.

Agency IT Vision Statement:

That George Mason and Gunston Hall achieve broad national recognition, and develop an audience for the historic plantation through the use of our website to inform the public. To educate the public about George Mason through our website, informational seminars and school programs, and innovative museum displays. To effectively maintain and preserve our historic structures and collections.

Total Employees: 17

Total IT Employees: 0

Project Selection Criteria:

Will the project increase recognition of George Mason or Gunston Hall, increase attendance at the historic site, enhance educational programs, help preserve the site or collections, or bring in revenue.

Business Case Development:

Project conformity with Gunston Hall's mission and strategic plan. Project benefits enhance our educational and community services or enhance our abilities to provide those services for immediate needs and for potential future contributions.

Risk Assessment Methodologies:

None of our current core business activities are information-system dependent and thus there is limited risk.

Prioritization Schema:

1. Mission assessment: will it advance our educational goals.
2. Historic Asset Management assessment: will it facilitate proper care of historic buildings and collections.
3. Cost assessment: determining resource availability, cost savings, and revenue generation.
